Our Local Network of Services

The Tri-County Kentucky United Way helps to fund a network of LOCAL programs that helps individuals. This network creates opportunities and removes barriers by working together to address the issues within our local communities. It helps to address the needs of the whole person – not just the primary issues that an individual is facing but the secondary ones, as well – working on the whole self through the support of many local programs, one step at a time.

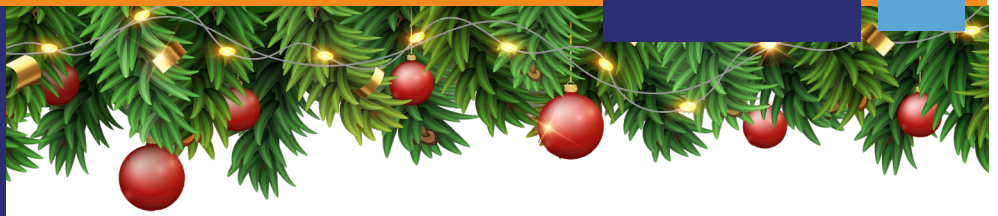

Our funded network of local programs are hard at work Creating Opportunities for individuals to:

- live healthier lives
- care for our children
- build stronger communities
- achieve financial stability
- meet their basic needs

“United Way is one of our biggest supporters, and we are grateful for all of the help we have received throughout the years; the financial assistance, referrals and resources that have been provided to us have been critical to our mission. Tri-County Kentucky United Way funding is crucial to continuing our mission and expanding our services to the most vulnerable in Nelson County.”

- Bethany Haven

To make a donation as an individual, small business, civic group, distillery, organization, or company, or to allow your employees to make a donation through the workplace, please contact Laura at director@tricitykyuw.org for information. Or, simply mail a check to Tri-County Kentucky United Way at P.O. Box 547, Bardstown, KY 40004.

“The funding allows us to continue our services in Nelson County and to better recognize the seniors that are volunteering their time and services to help others and to improve their community.” - Retired and Senior Volunteer Program

“Without the financial assistance of United Way, we could not continue to make improvements to our building that help provide a safe, healthy, and educational environment. We are deeply appreciative for all the assistance provided!” - Loretto Child Care
